

ORICA
MINING
SERVICES

The Power of Partnership

About Orica

Orica is a publicly owned company that operates as a leader in its chosen markets. It has a tradition of leadership, innovation, quality and safety.

Orica – Snapshot

- Operating from over 50 countries with customers located in many more
- Public company trading on the Australian Stock Exchange (ORI)
- By market cap, listed within Top 40 Australian Companies
- Proud history having begun in 1874 as a supplier of explosives to the gold fields of Australia
- Diversified portfolio

Orica Platforms

Global market leader in commercial explosives and blasting services to the mining, quarrying and infrastructure sectors

Global market leader in strata support systems, ventilation, water control, mining and tunnelling, and geotechnical solutions for underground mining and tunnelling

Global market leader in the supply of cyanide for use in gold extraction and Australia and New Zealand's largest supplier of chemical products to a broad range of industry sectors

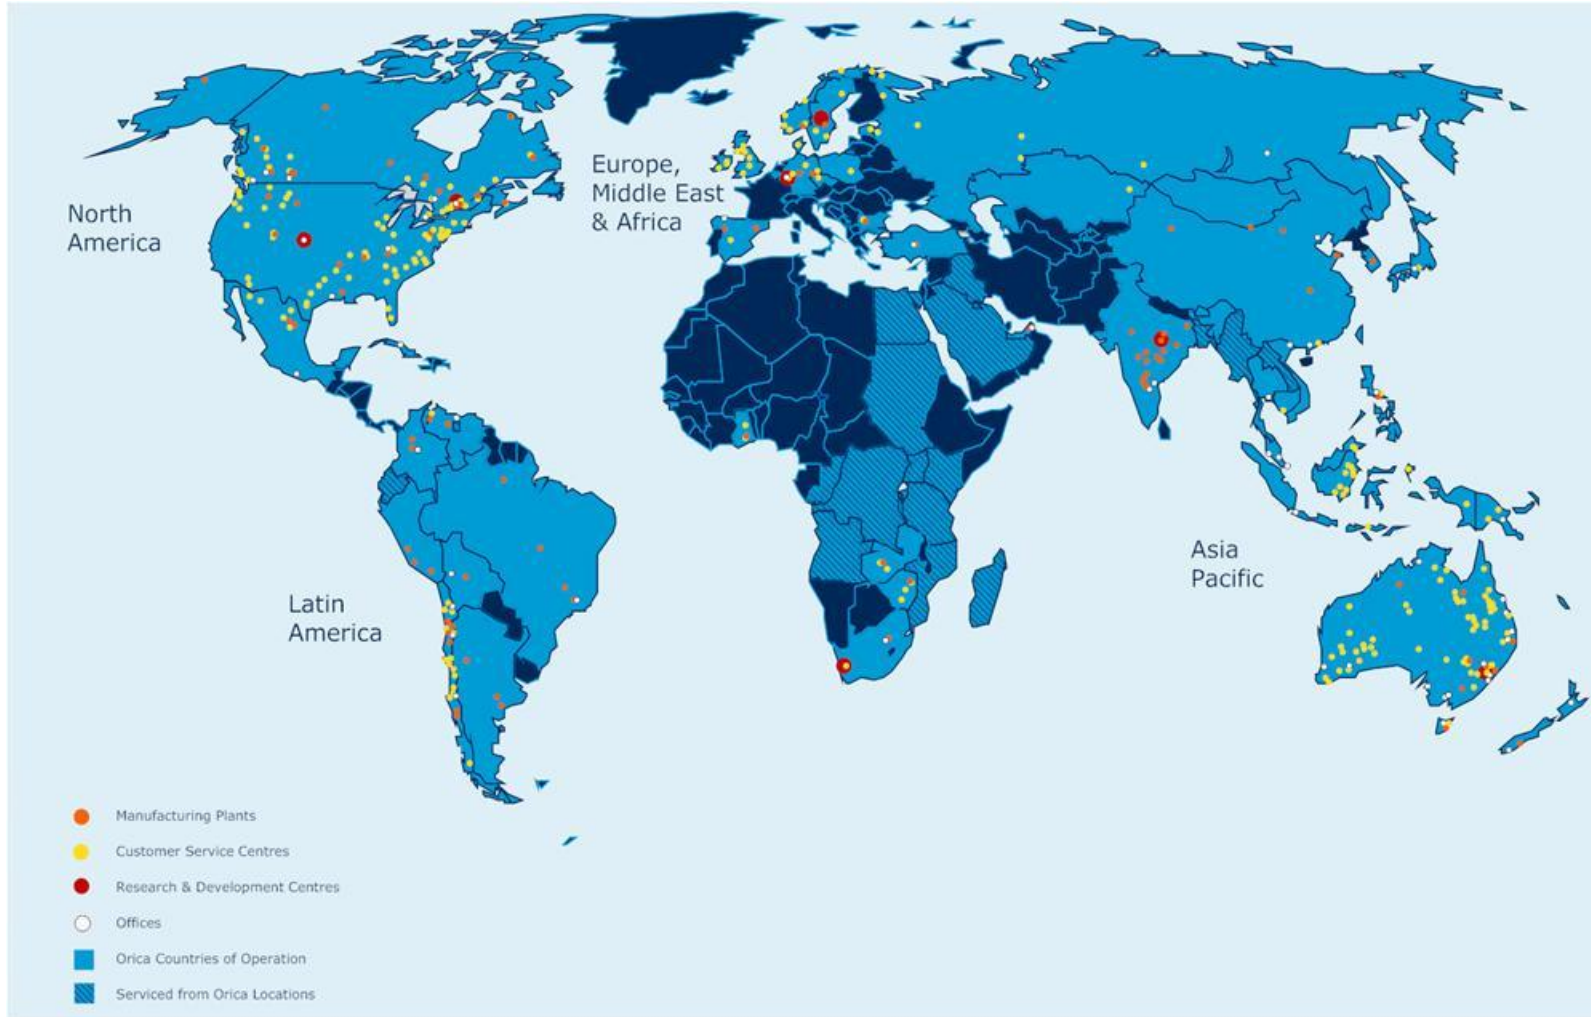

Clever solutions to help our customers harness natural resources to improve people's lives

Orica Mining Services

- The world's largest supplier of commercial explosives
- Pioneers of new technology
- Improves the productivity, economic and environmental outcomes of individual mines
- Advanced blasting solutions tailored to specific customer needs and challenges
- Our technical teams are global industry leaders
- Regional offices in Australia, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, Africa, North America and Latin America
- Partnering Customers in open cut coal, open cut metal, underground mining, seismic, avalanche, quarrying and construction markets

Contact

- www.orica.com
- www.oricamining services.com
- www.careers.orica.com
- Harald.bornebroek@orica.com